

Join our webinar on pre-settled status

Dear EU citizen,

We know the EU Settlement Scheme and its digital-only status known as an eVisa works perfectly well for many people. However, for far too many, the picture is very different. Many people - even when they have been granted status under the EUSS - have problems proving their rights, whether due to Home Office glitches or because of being digitally excluded.

Now, people are facing another worry - can the Home Office take away status or Withdrawal Agreement rights once granted?

Once again, these issues disproportionately impact on racialised EU citizens and their family members, and on vulnerable and digitally excluded people. Added to that, there is increasingly a lack of free and affordable help available.

On Thursday 13 August at 6pm, we're going to hold a webinar, to explain the different ways in which the Home Office can try to remove pre-settled status or Withdrawal Agreement rights, and what people can do about it.

We will be joined by Mala Savjani, from Wilsons Solicitors, who will explain what happens when the Home Office tells someone their existing EUSS status was granted in error.

Also joining us is Chris Benn, from Seraphus, who will answer your questions on what happens when the Home Office tells you they want to remove your pre-settled status.

We look forward to seeing many of you on 13 August!

In other news - on Monday the3million and British in Europe sent a joint letter to the new Prime Minister, urging that any reset in UK-EU relations be matched by faithful, good-faith implementation of the Withdrawal Agreement. We highlighted the barriers - from eVisa failures to unequal impacts on vulnerable groups - that still leave EU citizens in the UK and British citizens in the EU without the certainty they were promised.
